Martha's Mission Cupboard	Martha's Mission Cupboard is an emergency food pantry established to provide the needy citizens of Carteret County a temporary supply of nutritious and balanced food at no cost. When the client arrives at Martha's Mission after being screened by the Dept. of Social Services he or she presents a referral form to the volunteer working at the desk. The volunteer at the desk reviews the referral form, and checks to see if and when the client was last here. Information from the referral form is recorded in a permanent register and the referral date is entered on a daily summary sheet. Based on the number of people in the family, packers bag the appropriate amount of food for the family.
